Self Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix

“The AA groups themselves ought to be fully supported by the voluntary contributions of their own members.

We think that each group should soon achieve this ideal; that any public solicitation of funds using the name of Alcoholics Anonymous is highly dangerous, whether by groups, clubs, hospitals, or other outside agencies; that acceptance of large contributions carrying any obligation whatever is unwise.

Then too, we view with much concern those AA treasuries which continue, beyond prudent reserves, to accumulate funds for no stated AA purpose.

Experience has often warned us that nothing can so surely destroy our spiritual heritage as futile disputes over property, money, and authority.- Tradition 7 (Long form)

– Self Support begins with me, because I am part of us – the group. We pay out rent and utility bills, buy coffee, snacks and AA literature. We support our Intergroup, our District, our Area Committee, and General Service Office. If it were not for those entities, many new people would never discover the miracles of AA”
